New York, NY, Jan 22, 2010 – Miami Based, Desires Hotels announces the latest international addition to their modern boutique collection, The Cliffs Ocean Resort, which is situated between Puerto Plata and Samana along the stunning north coast of the Dominican Republic. The project is the first in the Dominican Republic to be LEED certified and is set to open Summer 2011. Room amenities at the eco-chic luxurious resort include large living areas and private terraces with unmatched views to the ocean and the mountains while being completely surrounded by a lush tropical landscape.

The Cliffs Ocean Resort's initial 102 rooms mark the first phase of development in which guests will enjoy the resort's close proximity to great golf at the Robert Trent Jones Sr. designed Playa Grande Golf Course which has been called the "Pebble Beach of the Caribbean." In an area that sees few tourists, the resort is only five minutes from crystal clear turquoise water with white powder sand beaches featuring water sports, fishing, surfing, and snorkeling. The area along the north coast of Dominican Republic is a beach lover's dream with 75 miles of pristine white-sand beaches that were named to Conde Nast Traveler's "Top 10 Beaches in the World." Nature enthusiasts will also enjoy short exploration trails to tropical waterfalls, lagoons, and mangroves.
